

Advertising with the Alabama Gastroenterological Society

What can AGS do for you?

About AGS

The Alabama Gastroenterological Society is the only organization in the state reaching out to Alabama's gastroenterologists and their practice managers.

With more than 100 active members, AGS is a growing organization communicating to its members through an e-mail newsletter, Scope..., as well as website posts to keep members in touch and up-to-date on the latest information.

Scope...

The e-newsletter, Scope..., is a biweekly newsletter sent to all AGS members and practice managers.

alagastro.org

AGS' website, alagastro.org, includes Classified Ads section to make your advertising easy to find.

As a bonus, when new ads are placed in the Classified Ads section, a post is placed on the Home Page so members and other viewers will know instantly by viewing the Recent Posts sidebar.

The package

Advertising with AGS includes a one-month, 50-word, text-only ad online and in the newsletter for $175.

Copies of Scope... and online classified ads will be enclosed with your invoice as proof of advertising.

Advertising may be renewed or canceled at the end of the month.

Conference Exhibitors and Sponsorship Opportunities

AGS conducts an annual meeting for physicians, ancillary providers and practice managers to earn continuing medical education credits and to conduct business of the association. The conferences include an exhibit hall where vendors can have face-to-face access with providers. Sponsorship opportunities are also available. Visit <http://alagastro.org/exhibitors/> for details.
